

GROUP CALENDARS

(a work in progress)

30boxes

This calendar allows users to organize time as a group and see the availability of other group members. <http://www.30boxes.com>

Goggle Calendar

From the website: “Share your schedule, get your calendar on the go, never forget another event, send invitations and track RSVPs, sync with your desktop applications, work offline”

<https://www.google.com/calendar>

Wiggio

Wiggio is an easy and free way to work in groups.

Wiggio includes the ability to host virtual meetings and conference calls; Create to do lists and assign tasks; Send email, text, and voice messages; manage events with a shared calendar; poll your group in real time; and upload and manage files in a shared folder. <http://www.wiggio.com>

From the field on using the shared calendar: “I now put all my tests, assignments and project deadlines on my classes Wiggio calendar. Student can access it whenever they want, and there's never an excuse anymore for not knowing when things are. I can also have Wiggio send students text message reminders before certain deadlines, which they love. Pretty easy.” – 7th grade teacher

Teamup

Group Planning and Sharing Made Easy

A Teamup Calendar is a shared calendar application. “With Teamup it’s easy for groups to share plans, schedules, and processes without requiring anyone to have an account or share personal calendars.” Often used as a school project scheduler. Basic level is free. <http://www.teamup.com>
